

Press release

Zurich, 9 July 2014

fundinfo Opens New Offices in London, Singapore and Madrid

By setting up a local presence in London, Singapore and Madrid, fundinfo aims to optimise its services to existing and new clients there and to extend its range of services. fundinfo has brought on board Josef Molvidsson in London and Alexander Looijen in Singapore, two seasoned experts with many years' experience in the investment fund industry.

In Madrid, cooperation with Kessler & Casadevall Asesoramiento Financiero has already begun and is now gaining momentum with the official office opening.

Commenting on the opening of the Singapore office, Philipp Portmann, CEO of fundinfo, said, "The opening of a local office in Singapore is a logical step for us as the fund markets in Asia - particularly those of Singapore and Hong Kong, where fundinfo set up an office in March 2011 - are becoming increasingly important to our clients."

Commenting on the office openings in London and Madrid, Jan Giller, head of Marketing & Sales, said, "The UK and Spain are both important fund distribution markets in Europe, and our new local subsidiaries will bring us closer to our clients in the respective countries, enabling us to better serve their needs."
