

PRESS RELEASE

ifund services AG merges with fundinfo AG

Zurich, Switzerland - 1st June, 2017: After working successfully together as close partners, but as separate legal entities for more than a decade, the management and shareholders of ifund services AG (“ifund services”) and fundinfo AG (“fundinfo”) have decided to merge the two companies into fundinfo. The management of both companies are confident that clients will be served better and more efficiently as a single legal entity. Both parties have therefore agreed to merge ifund service’s business and all staff with fundinfo.

The transaction has become effective today, 1st June, 2017.

fundinfo will continue to operate the ifund business with the same management and staff; former clients of ifund services will not experience any change in service breadth or quality.

The management and staff of both companies would like to thank their clients and business partners for the confidence placed in them and look forward to continuing an excellent business relationship, with professional fund research now added to fundinfo’s portfolio of services.

Philipp Portmann, CEO of fundinfo, said:

“The highly-experienced team of fund analysts from ifund services gives us the ability to deliver the innovation and advanced services our clients expect from fundinfo. The new fund research team will greatly enhance our service offering in the areas of tailor-made fund research and our newly developed “Digital-Advisor” SaaS solution. We warmly welcome the complete staff of ifund services to fundinfo. ”
